

Blues face Spennymoor

AFTER their controversial match against Wimbledon on Wednesday, Wycombe Wanderers will be hoping for a somewhat quieter time of things in their two matches over the weekend.

Tonight (Friday) they take on Rothmans Northern Leaguers Spennymoor United, who are down South for a couple of friendlies. Spennymoor are one of the strongest Northern sides and have a record almost comparable to Wycombe for league success.

Their team will be from: Powell, Adams, Mulligan, Hart, Pearson, Allis, Batey, Robson, Hunter, Banks, Hickman, Curry, Reilly.

Dave Bullock is expected to make his first game of the season while manager Ted Powell will give most of his new signings another run out, although several of them are struggling with minor injuries.

Tomorrow (Saturday) the Blues meet Redditch while their final friendly is against Dunstable Town on Tuesday night. All three matches are at Loakes Park.
